- What to look forward to in 2010

Trust and passion are two words that guide Mayor Dan Roger's approach to life. The passion has fueled over two decades of experience in marketing and communications. The trust has allowed him to build strong relationships with friends, family and business associates.

Dan Rogers was elected as Mayor of Prince George in November of 2008 and previous to becoming Mayor, Dan spent four terms on City Council from 1993 to 2005 and among other things is Past President and Life Member of the North Central Municipal Association, a former Director with the Union of B.C. Municipalities, and the current Chair of the Community Energy Association of BC. As a Councillor, he Chaired Prince George's Aquatic Centre Building Committee, served as a member of the Prince George Multiplex Building Committee, Co-chaired 2001 National Health Summit in Prince George, and represented the Federation of Canadian Municipalities on the Five Star Community Awards Program in the mid 1990's.

Aside from his professional career, his passions include family, community and an occasional athletic pursuit. He and his wife Linda have two young daughters.
